Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

The objects of this association shall be the collection and preservation of such memorials, books, papers and curiosities as may tend to illustrate and perpetuate the history of the early settlers of this island, and of the race which vanished before them; and the securing of a memorial building in which such collections can be preserved.

ARTICLE II.

The officers of this association shall be a President, six Vice-Presidents, a Recording and a Corresponding Secretary, and a Treasurer, who, with seven others to be elected, shall constitute a Council of seventeen. The President (and in his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents) shall preside at all meetings of the association and the Council.

The Recording Secretary shall keep a true record of the doings of the association and the Council, and a list of all the members of the association, with date of admission.

The Corresponding Seeretary shall conduct the correspondence of the association, and keep on file all letters received and copies of all letters sent.

The Treasurer shall give such surety for the faithful performance of his duties as the Council shall require; he shall collect all dues, and receive and pay out all money belonging to the association, under the direction of the Finance Committee, without whose order no money shall be invested or paid from the treasury. He shall report at the annual meeting, in detail, the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year; and shall keep the books always open to the inspection of any member. He shall keep a list of the members of the association, with date of all payments made as fees for membership.

The Council, seven members of which shall constitute a quorum, shall have the general management of the affairs of the association; shall appoint annually a Finance Committee of three, who shall be members of their own body; a Librarian and Cabinet Keeper; and such sub-committees as may be necessary.

ARTICLE III.

The annual meeting of the association shall be held during the month of June, at such date in the month as may be fixed upon by the Council, when all officers shall be chosen by ballot; and a majority of ballots shall be necessary to elect. The annual Council shall be on the same day, or at such other time as may be fixed by the Council.

ARTICLE IV.

Any person may become and continue a member of this association by the payment of one dollar per year. Any person may become a life member, and be entitled to a certificate of membership, on the payment of fifteen dollars. Any person may become a life councilor by a vote of the association, on the payment of fifty dollars, and shall be entitled to a certificate of membership. The annual tax shall be due the 15th day of June of each year.

ARTICLE V.

The Librarian and Cabinet-Keeper shall have charge of all books, papers and curiosities of the association, and shall record in a book kept for that purpose, a full list of the articles in his possession, with the name of the donor and the date when such articles are presented.

ARTICLE VI.

The stated meetings of the association and Council shall be called by the President, who shall give notice through some newspaper published on this island, of the time and place of holding the same, seven days before the time appointed. Articles shall be inserted in said call on the written application of three members. He shall, in like manner, call occasional meetings of the Council upon the application of three members; and of the association, upon the application of seven members, said application being in writing, stating the object for which such meeting is called.

ARTICLE VII.

This constitution may be altered or amended by the association at any meeting, upon a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting, notice of said proposed change having been in the call of said meeting.

By-Laws.

BY-LAW I.

Ten members of the association shall constitute a quorum at any meeting for the transaction of business.

BY-LAW II.

Donations may be received by the Nantucket Historical Association as loans or gifts, and receipts for the same shall be given by the association.
